During this session a participant asked whether Emeritus faculty could be used under 2-3-801(30(b)(II) if needed to fulfill the requirement of a three-person committee. During the session the presenter noted that the question had come up but not been definitively answered.

We have confirmed that the answer is no (faculty senate confirmed the intention was to only allow voting members of the faculty to count, and Satriana agreed that this is consistent with board policy).
