GREAT SAND DUNES NATIONAL MONUMENT
Alamosa, Colorado

June 30, 1954

To: Regional Director
From: Superintendent
Subject: Mosca Pass Discussion

On June 3 I attended a group meeting of the Alamosa County Commissioners to discuss the Mosca Pass Road. The meeting was entirely satisfactory to all parties attending and, as a result, a joint session of county commissioners from Rio Grande, Saguache, Mineral and Coejes counties met to determine what action to take. I did not attend this joint session but a newspaper clipping is submitted for your study to indicate the general trend of opinion.

Mosca Pass has been a subject of controversy since the time the original roadbed washed out in 1905. It undoubtedly will continue in this status. I will advise you of any items of worthwhile interest which may arise in this matter.
