SUBJECT "I regret the delay in answering your letter seeking information and orientation, for LIFE'S New York Office, on the picture possibilities of the stone towers of the Gallina, New Mexico, area, as reported by Hibben in the SATURDAY EVENING POST, and asking what other features may be found in New Mexico, Utah, and Colorado if a LIFE photographer is assigned to do a picture story of pre-Columbian activities in this region; also stating your interest in receiving any suggestions I may feel like making reference any other archaeological or National Park Service picture stories that LIFE might do in this area....."
