Memorandum

To: Manager, District Land Office
Denver, Colorado

From: Director, Bureau of Land Management

Subject: Proposed Addition to Hovenweep National Monument, Colorado

By a memorandum of March 21, 1949, copy attached, the Manager of the District Land Office at Pueblo was requested to check his records as to all outstanding oil and gas leases and to suspend action on any pending oil and gas applications in conflict with the proposed addition to the above National Monument.

No report having been received, it is requested that you report as soon as possible the status of the land as shown by your records, particularly with regard to any pending oil and gas lease applications, or outstanding leases. The action outlined in the memorandum of March 21 should be followed by your office if it has not yet been done.
