not be a bad idea to get him down to take charge of the roundup, providing funds are available and Superintendent Liek could release him to do it.

There is always a tendency to treat buffalo as one might cattle, so I reiterate the thought that they must never be handled on foot and everyone should be "on their toes" all the time.

I trust these random ideas may be of some use to you. If we can be of further service on the matter, please let us know.
