

Ursidae: The Undergraduate Research Journal of the University of Northern Colorado

Faculty Approval Form

This form must be uploaded to the journal website along with your manuscript submission (once your submission has been processed, on the submission verification page you will see a link for uploading an additional file). This form must be received before the manuscript is sent to a reviewer.

Ursidae: The Undergraduate Research Journal of the University of Northern Colorado seeks to publish the most outstanding scholarship of undergraduates at the University of Northern Colorado. Therefore, the paper submitted should be of the highest academic caliber, adhere to rigorous scientific or investigative techniques, and should be essentially free of errors.

Title of Manuscript

Minimodal: Dimensional Domain of Miniature Shipping Containers for Intermodal Freight Transportation

Field of Study

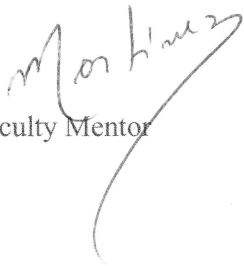

Business: Supply Chain Management

Author

Lee D. Stapley

Faculty Mentor: By inserting your name you acknowledge that you have read the paper named above and approve it for submission to the Undergraduate Research Journal. Please return the signed form to the student author for submission.

Faculty Mentor

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Mark Hines", is written over the "Faculty Mentor" label. The signature is cursive and includes a long, sweeping underline that extends to the right.